11 LISTENING
Your scaled score is between 300 to 400. Test takers who score around 300 typically have the following strengths:
• They can sometimes infer the central idea, purpose, and basic context of short spoken exchanges, especially when the vocabulary is not difficult.
• They can understand the central idea, purpose, and basic context of extended spoken texts when the information is supported by repetition or paraphrase.
• They can understand details in short spoken exchanges when easy or medium-level vocabulary is used.
• They can understand details in extended spoken texts when the information is supported by repetition and when the requested information comes at the beginning or end of the spoken text. They can understand details when the information is slightly paraphrased.
To see weaknesses typical of test takers who score around 300, see the "Proficiency Description Table."
If your performance is close to 400, you should also review the descriptors for test takers who score around 400.
